III. Type, scope, purposes and legal basis of data processing

Below you will find an overview of the type, scope, purposes and legal basis of data processing in connection with our event, the 'Admission test in the subject discipline of sport' on 13 October 2026.

1. Nature, scope and purposes of data processing

We would like to inform you that photos and videos of individuals who have given their consent will be taken during the examinations. These will be used for documentation and reporting purposes related to the event, as well as for public relations purposes, via the central website (www.uni-koblenz.de) and the social media platforms of the University of Koblenz (<https://www.linkedin.com/school/universitaet-koblenz/>; https://www.instagram.com/uni_koblenz/; <https://www.facebook.com/universitaet.koblenz>). If you do not wish to be photographed or filmed, please inform us immediately so that your request can be respected.

2. Legal basis for data processing

We process your personal data, which constitutes special categories of personal data within the meaning of Article 9(1) GDPR, exclusively on the basis of Article 9(2) GDPR, i.e. only if there is a legal basis for the intended processing.

You can withdraw your consent at any time. Please note, however, that this withdrawal only has effect for the future, i.e. the lawfulness of the processing of data already carried out on the basis of your consent up to the time of withdrawal is not affected by the withdrawal.

IV. Deletion/duration of storage of personal data

We only store your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected or, in the case of consent, for as long as you do not revoke your consent or until the underlying purpose has been achieved. If you revoke your consent, we will delete your personal data unless further processing is permitted under the relevant legal provisions. We will also delete your personal data if we are obliged to do so for legal reasons.

V. Recipients of personal data

The following recipients/categories of recipients may access your data to the extent necessary in each case.

➤ internal university data transfer the staff members of the University of Koblenz responsible for organising the 'Admission test in the subject discipline of sport' on 13 October 2026, for the purpose of documenting and reporting on the event and for public relations work.

➤ external university data transfer

As part of our press relations work, we send photos to providers and users of internet services (www.uni-koblenz.de) and social media platforms (LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/school/universitat-koblenz/>; Instagram: www.instagram.com/uni_koblenz/; Facebook: www.facebook.com/universitaet.koblenz)

VI. Place of data processing

The transfer of image and video recordings to third countries may take place in the context of publication on the Internet or on the aforementioned social media sites.

VII. Rights of data subjects

As a data subject, you have the following rights under the GDPR:

Right to information: You have the right to obtain information about the data we process about you.

Right to rectification: You have the right to request the rectification of inaccurate data about you. You also have the right to have incomplete data completed.

Right to erasure: In certain cases, you have the right to request the erasure of your personal data.

Right to restriction of processing: In certain cases, you have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your data.

Right to data portability: If you have provided us with data on the basis of a contract or consent, you have the right to receive this data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to have us transfer it to another controller.

Right to withdraw consent: If you have given us your consent to process your data, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time with effect for the future. The lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until withdrawal is not affected by the withdrawal.

How to exercise your rights: To exercise your rights, please contact us by email at pressestelle@uni-koblenz.de or in writing at the above address. Please ensure that we are able to clearly identify you.

Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority: You have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority if you believe that the processing of your personal data is unlawful. The supervisory authority responsible for us is:

The State Commissioner for Data Protection and

Freedom of Information in

Rhineland-Palatinate

Hintere Bleiche 34, 55116 Mainz

Email: poststelle@datenschutz.rlp.de

Right to object: In accordance with legal requirements, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you that is carried out on the basis of Article 6(1)(e) GDPR for reasons arising from your particular situation. The personal data concerning you will then no longer be processed unless there are demonstrably compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.
